FOREWORD

This Directory of international legal commitments linking the European Communities to third countries or groups of third countries has two purposes:

- (a) to provide a complete list of Community agreements in force;
- (b) to give exact references for these international acts, so that the texts of documents are easier to find.

The Directory is updated continually in the light of developments in the Community's international relations. It is published twice a year: one edition is in French and the other in English so that the Directory can be read and understood worldwide.

In order to underline the importance attached to each of these international acts, other information is provided, such as the legal basis, the structure, the administrative body and a summary of the agreement.

This document gives details of agreements in the strict sense of the term only. For information on other acts and on general developments in the sphere of agreements, specific requests may be made to the Treaties Office (Mrs FOSSATI - Tel; 235 61 62 or 235 49 19).

As from this edition, the list of third countries linked by agreements to the Community will no longer contain Spain or Portugal (*). As a result of their accession, with effect from 1 January 1986, they are now included in the Member States and the acts adapting agreements between the European Community and other third countries following the accession of Spain and Portugal are in the process of being concluded or negotiated, and in some cases transitional arrangements have been made.

The Directory lists the main agreements with non-member countries, and also minor agreements and sector agreements. The main agreements are marked with an asterisk.

In the case of the minor agreements, which are not usually published in the Official Journal, the Directory contains details only of the acts notified to the Treaties Office by the departments concerned, who are therefore invited to bring them to the notice of the Treaties Office by forwarding a copy (Berlaymont 3/117).

(*) For commitments which are still applicable, please consult previous editions of the Directory.

Non-preferential agreement under which the two parties "undertake to promote the development and diversification of their mutual trade to the highest possible level". They also agree to develop their economic cooperation, where linked with trade. The Agreement is therefore intended to provide a framework for cooperation. The two main cooperation instruments have been trade promotion (participation in fairs, trade missions, meetings and seminars, and the provision of experts) and economic cooperation (with the aim of launching joint ventures and measures to encourage foreign investors to participate in Bangladesh's industrialization programme). Bangladesh is also a substantial beneficiary under the programme of financial and technical assistance to NADCs (projets and trade promotion), mainly in the form of grants, and a major food aid recipient.

Implementation of the Agreement rests with a number of bodies with different spheres of competence, the most important being the Council of Ministers (Art. 265-271), the Committee of Ambassadors (Art. 272-273) and the Joint Assembly (Art. 276-277). Each body adopts its own rules of procedure and its operating arrangements. European Community bodies notably the EIB, act in matters within their sphere of responsibility. Other bodies are provided by certain of the Protocols to the Conventions (e.g., Customs Cooperation Committee, permanent joint group for bananas and joint working party rum).

Remarks

Comprehensive agreement providing for:

- (i) trade cooperation
- (ii) stabilization of exports earnings
- (iii) industrial, technical and financial cooperation.

It is accompanied by an "Internal Agreement on the measures and procedures required for implementation of the third ACP-EEC Convention of Lomé and an "Internal Agreement of the financing and administration of Community aid". These Internal Agreements were signed on 19 February 1985.

The Convention is similar to its predecessors since, among other things, the proposed innovation with regard to duration was not accepted. On the other hand, the approach to dialogue between the ACP side and the Community appears to have been more constructive in respect of certain thorny problems.

The preamble and Article 4 contain references to human rights and human dignity (UN Charter). Apartheid was condemned. This is in line with the points of concern expressed by the European Parliament.

It was also recommended that a working party to set up for improving investment guarantees. In addition, surplus agricultural products are placed at the disposal of the ACP countries at prices lower than world prices.

The overall financing package of 8 500 million ECU is divided between the EDF (7 400 million) and the EIB (1 100 million), the overall breakdown being as follows : Stabex - 12.50%, i.e. 925 million ECU; Sysmin - 5.61%, i.e. 415 million ECU; regional cooperation, including control of desertification - 1 000 million ECU; trade promotion - 60 million ECU; CDI - 40 million ECU; emergency aid and refugees - 290 million ECU. The grant element rises from 64.54% to 64.73% (4.860 million ECU).

This package covers all the ACP States which participated in the negotiations, including Angola and Mozambique, and anticipates the accession to the Community of Portugal and Spain. Provision is made, however, for adjustments in the event of the accession of new states which did not take part in the negotiations.

Mozambique became a signatory to the Convention for the first time. Angola also signed on 30 April 1985, bringing the number of the ACP countries to 66.

LOME CONVENTION

Remarks

The association of the OCT with the Community is covered by a Council Decision. Pending its adoption, provisional measures were adopted with the aim of maintaining the parallel element in the arrangements for the OCT and those for the ACP States under Lomé III.

A package of 120 million ECU (100 million ECU for the EDF and 20 million ECU for the EIB) has been allocated to finance cooperation with the OCT. The Commission proposes that these funds be broken down as follows :

risk capital - 15 million ECU; Stabex/Sysmin - 5 million ECU; emergency aid - 4 million ECU; regional cooperation - 10 million ECU; interest rate subsidies - 2.5 million ECU; access to the CDI - 0.5 million ECU; projects and programmes - 63 million ECU.

The 63 million ECU for the EDF are allocated among the three metropolitan countries (27 million ECU for both France and the Netherlands and 9 million ECU for the United Kingdom).
