FOREWORD

This special issue, containing an index for the years 1966 to 1969, is being published in addition to the four ordinary issues of 'European Documentation' to appear in 1971.

The form of 'European Documentation' changed somewhat between 1966 and 1969. It ceased to appear monthly in July 1967 and became a quarterly. At the same time it was decided to insert the section covering the activities of the European Parliament in a separate publication, i. e. 'European Parliament - Information Bulletin'.

The index for 1970 will be attached to the issue of 'European Documentation' covering the first quarter of 1971.
