

COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

COM(95) 31 final
Brussels, 13.02.1995

95/0025 (ACC)

Proposal for a

COUNCIL DECISION

authorizing the automatic renewal or maintenance in force of provisions governing matters covered by the common commercial policy contained in the friendship, trade and navigation treaties and trade agreements concluded between Member States and third countries

(presented by the Commission)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

In accordance with Article 3 of the Council Decision of 16 December 1969 on the progressive standardization of agreements concerning commercial relations between Member States and third countries and on the negotiation of Community agreements,¹ the Commission proposes that the Council authorize the Member States, under certain conditions, to renew automatically or extend the provisions of trade agreements and treaties covering areas within the ambit of the common commercial policy, as listed in the Annex to the attached proposal for a Council Decision, from January 1995 to December 1995.

Following completion of the prior consultation required under Article 2 of the above Decision, it was ascertained on 18 October 1994 that the conditions that would allow the provisions of these agreements and treaties to be extended for one year had been met.

Treaties and trade agreements between the Member States and the EFTA countries are not covered by the proposal, except for those concluded with Switzerland and Norway. Their renewal or extension was not considered appropriate, as the countries concerned will be members of the European Union from 1 January 1995 or are already members of the European Economic Area.

A list of the treaties and agreements with Switzerland is attached to the proposal. The difficulties to which they give rise will have to be resolved through negotiation and conclusion of an agreement between the European Union and Switzerland on the basis of the negotiating directives in five areas including agriculture adopted by the Council on 31 October 1994.

Trade agreements with Norway, or to be more precise, the agreement between France and Norway, should be renewed until 31 December 1995 owing to the new situation created by the Norwegian referendum and the limited cover given by the EEA agreement to the agricultural sector.

The Commission believes that, in general, the anachronistic situation, which is rendered ever more complex by the growing number of parallel agreements, with the risk of attendant contradictions, needs to be eliminated by the adjustment or termination by the Member States of their treaties and trade agreements with non-Community countries.

The Commission would point out, moreover, that the proposal aimed at authorizing the Member States to renew or extend for an additional year the trade agreements and treaties listed in the Annex to the attached proposal for a Council Decision is entirely without prejudice to any position it may adopt when the next proposal for the extension of those trade agreements and treaties falls due.

authorizing the automatic renewal or maintenance in force of provisions governing

States and third countries

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Article 113 thereof,

Having regard to Council Decision 69/494/EEC of 16 December 1969 on the progressive standardization of agreements concerning commercial relations between Member States and third countries and on the negotiation of Community agreements,¹ and in particular Article 3 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Whereas the automatic renewal or extension beyond the transitional period of the treaties, agreements and protocols listed in the Annex was last authorized by Decision 93/679/EC;²

Whereas the Member States concerned have again requested authorization for the automatic renewal or continuance in force of provisions governing matters covered by the common commercial policy within the meaning of Article 113 of the Treaty and contained in the friendship, trade and navigation treaties and similar agreements with third countries listed in the Annex, in order to avoid interrupting their contractual commercial relations with the third countries concerned;

Whereas, however, most of the matters covered by these provisions of national treaties and agreements will in future be governed by Community agreements; whereas, in that case, authorization should be given only in respect of those matters not covered by Community agreements; whereas, in addition, such authorization does not absolve the Member States from the obligation of avoiding and, where appropriate, eliminating any incompatibility between such treaties and agreements and the provisions of Community law;

Whereas the provisions of the treaties and agreements to be automatically renewed or maintained in force must not, furthermore, during the period under consideration, constitute an obstacle to the implementation of the common commercial policy;

Whereas the Member States concerned have stated that the automatic renewal or continuance in force of these treaties and agreements should not be such as to constitute an obstacle to the opening of Community commercial negotiations with the relevant third countries or the transfer of the commercial fields covered by current bilateral agreements to Community agreements;

Whereas, at the conclusion of the consultation provided for in Article 2 of Decision 69/494/EEC, it was established, as the aforesaid statements by the Member States confirm, that the provisions of the relevant treaties and bilateral agreements will not, during the period under consideration, constitute an obstacle to the implementation of the common commercial policy;

Whereas, nevertheless, the Member States concerned have stated that they would be willing to adapt and, if necessary, terminate those treaties and agreements should it be found, during the period under consideration, that the automatic renewal or continuance in force of the provisions thereof relating to matters covered by Article 113 of the Treaty hinders the implementation of the common commercial policy;

Whereas the treaties and agreements involved contain termination clauses requiring a period of notice of between three and twelve months;

Whereas, therefore, there is no reason for not authorizing the automatic renewal or continuance in force, until 31 December 1995, of the provisions in question;

Whereas the automatic renewal or extension of the treaties and trade agreements between the Member States and the EFTA countries was considered inappropriate, except for those concluded with Switzerland and Norway, as the countries concerned will be members of the European Union from 1 January 1995 or are already members of the European Economic Area,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

Article 1

The provisions governing matters covered by the common commercial policy within the meaning of Article 113 of the Treaty contained in the friendship, trade and navigation treaties and trade agreements listed in the Annex hereto may be automatically renewed or maintained in force until 31 December 1995 as regards those areas not covered by agreements between the Community and the third countries concerned in so far as their provisions do not conflict with existing common policies.

Article 2

This Decision is addressed to the Member States.
