TURKISH DELEGATION VISITS COMMON MARKET
FOR TALKS ON ASSOCIATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22 -- A delegation from Turkey, led by Ambassador Hasan Esat Isik, and a delegation representing the Commission of the European Economic Community, headed by Günter Seeliger, its director general of external relations, held a series of meetings June 18-22 at Commission headquarters in Brussels.

The two groups examined the principles and possible terms and conditions of a form of association between the Turkish Republic and the Community. The Turkish application for association with the EEC was made July 31, 1959, and periodic meetings have been held since.
