PROPOSAL FOR A
COUNCIL DIRECTIVE

establishing measures for the implementation of Directive 77/489/EEC on the protection of animals
during international transport

(submitted to the Council by the Commission)

COM(78) 764 final.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE COMMISSION TO THE COUNCIL

Subject : Proposal for a Council Directive establishing measures for the implementation of the Council Directive of 18 July 1977 on the protection of animals during international transport (77/489/EEC)

Article 7 of the Council Directive of 18 July 1977 on the protection of animals during international transport (77/489/EEC) provides for the adoption of measures necessary for the implementation of the Directive.

The present proposal lays down certain provisions for application of that Article, and in particular the provisions necessary for the implementation of point 1(d) of the Annex to the Directive.

In addition, proposals are made to meet requirements relating to certification where the Commission has found it necessary to establish a document in addition to the health certificate to ensure that the entire duration of international transport is covered.

The proposal also includes provisions designed to permit the gradual development of Community measures in this field of animal protection specifically related to land, water and air transport. To speed up the development and adoption of these measures and to enable their practical application, it is proposed that pursuant to Article 155 of the EEC Treaty the Commission be empowered to lay down the rules for the application of the Directive, in accordance with the procedure of the Standing Veterinary Committee.

PROPOSAL FOR A
COUNCIL DIRECTIVE

establishing measures for the implementation of Directive 77/489/EEC on the protection of animals
during international transport

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Articles 43 and 100 thereof,

Having regard to Council Directive 77/489/EEC of 18 July 1977 on the protection of animals during international transport⁽¹⁾, and in particular Article 7 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Parliament,

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee;

Whereas the Council provided in Article 7 of Directive 77/489/EEC for the adoption of the provisions necessary for the implementation of that Directive;

Whereas Directive 77/489/EEC will not have the desired effects as long as disparities exist between the Member States as to the application of certain provisions on the protection of animals during international transport;
whereas Community provisions should therefore be adopted in this field;

Whereas the abovementioned Directive provides that the best means of ensuring that domestic animals of the bovine, ovine, caprine and porcine species and domestic solipeds are transported without cruelty is to provide for an international transport certificate to be issued in respect of such animals; whereas to that end the certificate must accompany the animals to their final destination and contain details of the conditions of transport at every stage;

- Whereas it is necessary to lay down the procedure referred to in Article 7 of the abovementioned Directive whereby in certain specific cases Member States may be authorized at their request not to apply point 1 of Chapter I of the Annex to the Directive; whereas such exemption must, however, be subject to guarantees relating to conditions of transport, where appropriate by providing for a special certificate to be issued; whereas the advisability and conditions of exemption should be determined by a Community procedure under which there is close and effective cooperation between the Member States and the Commission;

Whereas pursuant to Article 7 of the said Directive and to ensure the general implementation of the Directive, provision should be made for laying down detailed requirements for each type of transport, in accordance with the abovementioned procedure,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DIRECTIVE :

Article 1

1. Without prejudice to Article 2, Member States shall authorize the international transport of animals referred to in Chapter I of the Annex to Directive 77/489/EEC by land, water or air only on presentation of a certificate conforming to the specimen at Annex I to this Directive, made out by an official veterinarian.

Such certificate shall:

- be issued on the day on which the animals are loaded for consignment to the country of destination;
 - be drafted in at least one of the official languages of the exporting country, the country or countries of transit and the country of destination;
 - accompany each consignment of animals transported to their final destination;
 - be valid for 14 days;
 - consist of a single sheet of paper.
2. Member States shall ensure that the attestations required in the certificate provided for in paragraph 1 regarding loading, transport, arrival at destination, feeding and watering of the animals are completed, as appropriate, by an official of the competent authority, by the owner or by his authorized agent.

The certificate shall be submitted to the competent authority of the Member State of destination within 24 hours after arrival at destination and shall be kept by that authority for at least three months.

Article 2

1. Member States may, on application and in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 4, be authorized not to apply points 1(a), (b) and (c) of Chapter I of the Annex to Directive 77/489/EEC in respect of certain categories of animals such as pure-bred breeding animals, or animals transported for shows or sporting competitions.

- Applications shall be submitted to the Commission and shall specify the categories of animal concerned and the reason exemption is required from one or more of the provisions in question.
2. For exemption to be granted, guarantees shall be provided to ensure at least that:
- the animals are spared any cruel treatment or unnecessary suffering;
 - the other general and specific provisions of Directive 77/489/EEC are observed;
 - the duration of the journey is not excessive.
3. The decision to grant exemption may be made conditional on the issue of a certificate. In such case Member States shall ensure that a certificate, conforming to the specimen at Annex II, is issued by the competent authority. such certificate shall:
- be issued on the day on which the animals are loaded for consignment to the country of destination;
 - be drafted in at least one of the official languages of the exporting country, the country or countries of transit and the country of destination;
 - accompany each consignment of animals transported to their final destination;
 - be valid for 14 days;
 - consist of a single sheet of paper.

Article 3

- The rules for implementing Directive 77/489/EEC relating to animals transported by land, water and air shall take into account in particular :
- the biological, physiological and ethological requirements of the animals before, during and after the journey;
 - the means of transport and the method of loading and unloading;
 - the care of the animals by those in charge of them during the journey.

Such rules shall be adopted in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 4.

Article 4

1. Where the procedure laid down in this Article is to be followed, the matter shall without delay be referred by the chairman, either on his own initiative or at the request of a Member State, to the Standing Veterinary Committee (hereinafter referred to as 'the Committee'), set up by the Council Decision 68/361/EEC.
2. Within the Committee the votes of the Member States shall be weighted as laid down in Article 148 (2) of the Treaty. The chairman shall not vote.
3. The representative of the Commission shall submit a draft of the measures to be adopted. The Committee shall deliver its opinion on these measures within a time limit set by the chairman having regard to the urgency of the questions under examination. Opinions shall be delivered by a majority of 41 votes.
4. The Commission shall adopt the measures and shall implement them immediately, where they are in accordance with the opinion of the Committee. Where the measures envisaged are not in accordance with the opinion of the Committee, or if no opinion is delivered, the Commission shall without delay submit to the Council a proposal on the measures to be taken. The Council shall adopt the measures by a qualified majority.

If the Council has not adopted any measures within three months of the date on which the matter is referred to it, the Commission shall adopt the proposed measures and shall implement them immediately.

Article 5

Member States shall bring into force the laws, regulations and administrative provisions necessary to comply with this Directive on

They shall forthwith inform the Commission thereof.

Article 6
