MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

tabled by Mr SEEFELD, Mr CAROSSINO, Dame Shelagh ROBERTS, Mr KALOYANNIS, Mr ALBERS, Mrs von ALEMANN, Mr BUTTAFUOCO, Mr CARDIA, Mr GABERT, Mr K.-H. HOFFMANN, Mr JANSSEN VAN RAAY, Mr JUNOT, Mr KLINKENBORG, Mr LAGAKOS, Mr MARSHALL, Mr MOORHOUSE, Mr MORELAND, Mr RIPA DI MEANA and Mr VANDEWIELE

on behalf of the Committee on Transport pursuant to Rule 47 of the Rules of Procedure on the priorities for the second half of the electoral period

The European Parliament,

- A. anxious to set itself, and the other institutions, goals for the second half of the electoral period;
- B. bearing in mind the decision incorporated in its resolution of 9 March 1982 on the common transport policy to institute proceedings against the Council under Article 175 of the EEC Treaty because of the lack of progress in this sector;
- C. having regard to the conclusion in the same resolution that the lack of a common transport policy must inevitably prevent further progress in Community policies and even, in the long term, pose a threat to achievements so far;
 - 1. Regrets that the Mandate of 30 May took no account of the need for further development of the common transport policy;
 - 2. Urges the Commission to promote the common transport policy as vigorously as the common policies mentioned in the Mandate of 30 May;
 - 3. Decides that it considers the further development of the common transport policy one of the top priorities for the second half of the current electoral period.
