THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT,

- A. having regard to the Treaties establishing the European Community,
- B. having regard to the numerous proposals by the Commission of the European Communities and the resolutions and opinions of the European Parliament following the first direct elections to this Parliament,
- C. having regard to the decisions of the European Council and in particular its decisions of 1974 on preparations for passport union and of late 1982 in Copenhagen on a timetable for Council decisions on the extension of the internal market,
- D. in view of the continual confirmations and reassurances on these matters given in this House by Presidents of the Council and Council representatives since the direct elections in 1979,
