with request for topical and urgent debate

pursuant to Rule 48 of the Rules of Procedure

ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT/NATIONAL PARLIAMENT JOINT COMMITTEES IN MEMBER STATES FOR THE PURPOSE OF EXCHANGING INFORMATION

The European Parliament,

- A. whereas at present there is not sufficient suitable reciprocal information on the activities, problems and initiatives of the European Parliament and the national Parliaments in the Member States;
- B. considering a greater exchange of information between the European Parliament and the national Parliaments essential to facilitate cooperation between them and an awareness of problems and measures and also in order to move more consciously towards the development of a Community policy;

resolves to ask the President of the European Parliament to propose to his colleagues in the national Parliaments of the Member States - according to methods, schedules and procedures to be agreed - that Permanent European Parliament/national parliament joint committees be established to hold periodic meetings in order to exchange information as appropriate on their common problems, activities and initiatives so that, through increased cooperation, they can achieve a more responsible, informed and suitable approach towards the attainment of the common European ideal.
