pursuant to Rule 25 of the Rules of Procedure on the setting up of an ad hoc committee on the rights, equality and status of women in the countries of the Community

The European Parliament,

- aware of the serious discrimination against women which persists in spite of the existence of the Treaty of Rome,

Decides to set up an ad hoc committee on equal rights and the status of women.

The aim of this ad hoc committee will be to monitor and study the various aspects of the status of women in the countries of the EEC. As the committee's work progresses, it will place its conclusions before the plenary Assembly with a view to making a contribution to practical improvements in the status of women.
