with request for urgent debate
pursuant to Rule 14 of the Rules of Procedure on participation in the United Nations Special Conference on the status of women

The European Parliament,

- appreciating the importance of the Special Conference of the United Nations Organization on the status of women to be held in Copenhagen from 14 to 30 July 1980,
- considering that Community representation in United Nations bodies must reflect the new role of the directly elected Parliament,
- considering that the European Parliament's ad hoc committee must be present at a debate of this kind,
- considering that European representation must also be strengthened when national delegations are constituted,

1. Requests

- that the European Parliament's ad hoc committee be a full member of the Community delegation which will be constituted for Copenhagen;
- that each Member State include the Members of the European Parliament who are members of the ad hoc committee in the national delegations constituted for Copenhagen;

2. Instructs its President to forward this resolution to the Council and the Commission and to the Foreign Affairs Ministers of the nine Member States of the European Community meeting in political cooperation.

JUSTIFICATION

The membership of the delegations must be determined shortly; most states will do so this month.
