CORRIGENDUM

COMMISSION COMMUNICATION TO THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL

Effects of the entry into force of the Amsterdam Treaty on current legislative procedures

The following corrections have to be made to the Commission communication to the European Parliament and the Council on the effects of the entry into force of the Amsterdam Treaty on current legislative procedures (SEC(1999)581):

- A. In Annex 1 to this communication (Changes in legal bases for pending legislative proposals following entry into force of the Amsterdam Treaty):
- delete point 4 ("4. Proposal for a Council directive amending directive 90/539/CEE on animal health conditions governing intra-Community trade in and imports from third countries of poultry and hatching eggs") (This proposal therefore continues to have the legal base on which it was originally presented, namely Article 43 EC, now Article 37 EC).
- B. In Annex 2 to this communication (List of Commission proposals pending at 1 May 1999), the corrections shown in the following table should be made.

Effects of the entry into force of the Amsterdam Treaty on current legislative procedures

- I. When the Amsterdam Treaty comes into force on 1 May 1999, the Community legislator will have to act on Commission proposals presented before that date, which are currently at different stages of the legislative procedure.

The effects that the entry into force of the Amsterdam Treaty will have on these pending proposals are of different types:

- I. The Treaty articles which constitute the legal base(s) for all the proposals coming under the EC Treaty will be renumbered. Articles in the Treaty will be renumbered automatically by virtue of Article 12 of the Amsterdam Treaty.

In practical terms each institution will have to use the new numbering in the documents it produces after the Amsterdam Treaty has entered into force.

- II. The legislative procedure will be different for some pending proposals. In particular the Amsterdam Treaty replaces the cooperation procedure by the codecision procedure (except as regards monetary union); there are also more areas in which the Committee of the Regions must be consulted.

The new procedures must be applied once the Amsterdam Treaty enters into force.

For proposals which were dealt with by the cooperation or consultation procedure before the Amsterdam Treaty came into force, but which will in future be covered by the codecision procedure, Parliament will become co-legislator.

III. For a relatively small number of proposals, the amendments to the EC Treaty made by the Amsterdam Treaty result in a change in the legal base. With this communication, the Commission formally amends the proposals listed in Annex 1.

IV. For a last group of proposals the legal framework has been altered by the Amsterdam Treaty.

This group includes two proposals for Directives, based on the Protocol on Social Policy and now within the scope of the EC Treaty. The Commission hereby retains the content of the proposals and decides to make the EC Treaty their legal base, as indicated in Annex 1.

The group also comprises proposals which the Commission presented within the Community framework or the framework of Title VI of the Treaty on European Union, on cooperation in the fields of justice and home affairs, but which relate to matters now within the scope of the new Title IV of the EC Treaty. It is not possible, for these proposals, simply to replace the current legal base by a new one. These proposals will eventually have to be replaced by new ones.

Proposals pending in the Council which result from an initiative by a Member State within the framework of Title VI of the Treaty on European Union, are not included in the list. For some of these, e.g. those concerning the transmission of documents and the recognition of judgments in matrimonial matters and matters relating to parental responsibility, the Commission will present a proposal for a legal instrument based on the EC Treaty.

2. The Commission has prepared a list of all the proposals it presented before 1 May (Annex 2). For each one it shows the effects of the entry into force of the Amsterdam Treaty (the different types of effect listed at 1 above are classified in categories I to IV).

CAT 0 - no change: the legal base is secondary legislation, or it comes under the ECSC or Euratom Treaty, or there is no explicit legal base ("briefs" for international negotiations).

CAT I - no change in legal base or procedure, simply renumbering of the legal base (e.g. Art. 130 becomes Art. 157)

CAT II - no change in legal base (only renumbering), but change will occur in legislative procedure (e.g. Art. 75 (cooperation) becomes Art. 71 (codecision)).

CAT III - change in legal base (whether or not this involves a change of legislative procedure) (e.g. a proposal currently based on Article 100a which will in future be based on Article 152).

CAT IV - change of legal framework: for some proposals the Amsterdam Treaty has changed the legal framework, i.e. proposals based on the Protocol on social policy and those that now come under the new Title IV of the EC Treaty, rather than JHA).

- column E indicates the parts of the procedure that will change when the Amsterdam Treaty enters into force. The key to the codes used is as follows:

unanimité = unanimity in the Council

Cons. = consultation procedure

Coop. = Cooperation procedure

Cod. = Codecision procedure

+CdR = Committee of the Regions must be consulted

+CES = Economic and Social Committee must be consulted avis conforme PE = assent procedure
