NOTE

This edition combines external trade and balance of payments statistics for the Community, the aim being to provide the reader with all statistical information relating to the Community's external transactions.

Owing to different periodicities of data collection (monthly for external trade, quarterly for balance of payments), figures for the balance of payments will appear four times a year in this publication.

The statistical tables will be preceded by a concise analysis which will comment upon the main economic trends. To this end, certain Community aggregates will be estimated if the necessary data is available for most member states.

In the commentary on recent balance of payments developments, use will be made of the latest information available for the main balances even if the detailed breakdown of this information by sub-post has not yet arrived.

ATTENTION PLEASE

Within the framework of the single market, as from the 1st January 1993 new collection procedures for intra-community trade will be in operation (INTRASTAT system).

As a result, statistics relating to periods after this date only contain data on extra-community trade, except tables 5 and 6 which contain global data from the Intrastat system.

Foreword

Two important changes have taken place in 1988 with regard to the collection of external trade statistics:

- (i) The introduction of the Single Administrative Document, which not only covers trade in Community goods between Member States but is also intended to be used for the corresponding formalities in trade with non-member countries. This simplification of declaration procedures in the exchange of goods marks an important step towards completion of the internal market.
- (ii) The simultaneous entry into force of a new goods classification known as the Combined Nomenclature (CN), which is intended to meet Common Customs Tariff and statistical requirements alike. This nomenclature is based on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (HS), whose aim is to enhance the worldwide comparability of external trade statistics.

As a result of both these changes, customs and statistical departments were faced with a considerable amount of work until the procedures had been properly introduced and tested and formed part of normal working practice.

This meant that there were delays in the forwarding of data in all the Member States. In addition, there was bound to be a higher quota of errors and corrections, so that the first month's data are not directly comparable with those of the preceding year and therefore need to be interpreted with caution.

In particular, it should be noted that considerable divergences have arisen at subheading level between the Combined Nomenclature and the formerly used Nimexe, leading to a break in the goods-related time series between 1987 and 1988. Up to December 1987 this Bulletin used the SITC Rev. 2, which was worked out using the 6-digit Nimexe, while from January 1988 it uses the SITC Rev. 3, which has been drawn up using the 8-digit subheadings of the Combined Nomenclature.

As an aid to interpretation of the statistics, Eurostat has published in Theme 6 'Foreign Trade, Series E: Methods' brochures entitled 'Nomenclature of goods, CN-Nimexe correlation tables'. These provide a comparison between the old and new nomenclatures as well as showing the links between the Combined Nomenclature (CN) and its offshoots.

Eurostat will be glad to provide users of European statistics with any further information or explanations they may require with regard to these new developments.

Important note

As from October 1990 the foreign trade figures of the Federal Republic of Germany, the other Member States and of EUR 12 concern the Federal Republic of Germany as constituted from 3 October 1990.

See Glossarium 1993

As from the beginning of January 1988: SITC, Revision 3

The introduction of INTRASTAT regulations for intra-EC trade statistics in January 1993 has resulted in significant delays in the availability of data. As a result, the figures for intra-Community trade have not yet been updated and the figures given here are the same as for last month's bulletin. Due to the fact that Denmark's external trade data is missing, it has not been possible to calculate the figures for the Community in May.

From mid-1991, the seasonally adjusted European Community exports to the rest of the world were relatively stable, but have now been rising steadily since February 1993 (April exports were up 2.5 % on March figures). Exports were up 3 % in the first four months of 1993 compared to the same period last year.

The figures for the seasonally adjusted importation of goods to the European Community from the rest of the world have risen steadily for about a year (+0.5 % in April 1993), despite fluctuations in December 1992 and February 1993. These observations should be considered with care however, as they could be affected by the change in methodology mentioned above.

The deficit of the European Community's seasonally adjusted trade balance has improved since early 1992. The deficit for April 1993 is just -1.4 billion ECU, which is the smallest recorded deficit for nearly five years.

Trade between EC Member States (intra-EC) has stabilised at a high level, following the upward trend observed since the beginning of 1991. Intra-EC trade is expected to slow down during the next months.

(1) As from October 1990, the territory of the Federal Republic of Germany includes the territory of the former German Democratic Republic, including East Berlin.

Community results are drawn up accordingly.

(2) Seasonal Adjustment via X11/ARIMA procedure.

GLOBAL TRENDS: Results for May 1993. (1)
The difference between the rate of change for exports and the rate for imports between January-May 1992 and January-May 1993 is almost 9 points for the Community, 5 for Japan and -6 for the United States.

The Community's deficit for the first five months of 1993 was ECU 14.8 billion, as against ECU 31.3 billion for the corresponding period of 1992. The rate of change for exports between January-May 1992 and January-May 1993 was nearly 9 points higher than for imports. Extra-Community imports were down by 4.7%, whereas exports showed a rise - almost 4% - compared with the first five months of 1992.

The US trade deficit, at ECU 49.1 billion, was twice as high as in January-May 1992. US imports rose sharply in January-May 1993 in ecu terms (15.4%), but less steeply in dollar terms at 10.2%. US exports rose more slowly than imports, at 9.2% in ecu terms and 4.3% in dollars.

Japan's cumulative surplus over the first five months of 1993 was ECU 42.4 billion, ECU 7.7 billion up on the January-May 1992 figure. The growth in exports was steady in ecu terms at 11.4%, but less strong in dollar terms at 6.3%. The yen-ecu parity caused the upward thrust in ecu terms: exports were 3.2% down in yen terms. Considered in ecus, Japanese imports were 6.5% higher, and in dollars 1.7% higher, but in yen 7.1% lower.

EXTRA-COMMUNITY TRADE BY PARTNER COUNTRY: Results for May 1993.
The Community deficit with the Industrialised countries was some ECU 10 billion smaller in January-May 1992 than in the same period of 1993.

Almost ECU 10 billion of the ECU 16.5 billion improvement in the extra-Community trade balance for the first five months of 1993 compared with the same period of 1992 was attributable to the fall in the deficit with the industrialised countries, which stood at ECU 18 billion in January-May 1993. The gap in trade with the United States and Canada narrowed by ECU 4.6 billion, and with Japan by ECU 2.2 billion. The Community's trade balance with Japan was ECU -11.4 billion for the first five months of 1993 compared with -6.7 billion for the balance with the United States. Trade with the EFTA countries showed a deficit of ECU 1.7 billion in January-May 1993, ECU 500 million less than in the corresponding period of 1992. Trade with the other countries of Western Europe was in surplus to the tune of ECU 2.5 billion, 1.4 billion up.

Community imports from the industrialised countries were 8.8% down on the cumulative level for the first five months of 1992. Flows of imports from the United States and Canada took a downward turn (-8.1%) with the dollar appreciating against the ecu (4.9%). Imports from the EFTA countries were 6.3% down on the first five months of 1992. Flows from Japan were 11.7% down, with the yen appreciating 14.6% against the ecu.

Exports to the industrialised countries fell by 1.6% between January-May 1992 and the same period of 1993, to the EFTA countries by 5.6% and to Japan by 4.3%. Flows of exports to the United States and Canada were up by 3% and those to other countries in Western Europe by 6.6% between the first five months of 1992 and the same period of 1993. The Community's trade with developing countries resulted in a surplus of ECU 6.5 billion in January-May 1993, as against ECU 0.7 billion for the corresponding period of 1992. The trade surplus with the Mediterranean countries amounted to ECU 4.3 billion, a rise of ECU 2.8 billion since the first five months of 1992. The trade deficit with the OPEC countries stayed at ECU 500 million. The balances with the ACP and Latin-American countries, in deficit in January-May 1992, recovered in January-May 1993 by ECU 2.5 billion in each case to produce surpluses of ECU 1.1 and ECU 0.2 billion respectively. Trade with the Asian NICs was in the black for the first five months of 1993 (ECU 500 million), whereas it had been in deficit (ECU -1.1 billion) in the corresponding period of 1992. Imports from the developing countries were 4.7% down between January-May 1992 and the same period of 1993. Flows from the OPEC countries declined by 5% and imports from the Mediterranean countries by 9.6%. Imports from the ACP and the Latin-American countries plummeted (by almost 29% and 16% respectively). Flows from the Asian NICs showed the least severe drop (0.3%). Exports to the developing countries rose by around 5% between the two periods in question, with further upward tendencies in flows to the Asian NICs (14.4%) and the Latin-American countries (15.4%). Exports to the Mediterranean and the ACP countries were up by 5.8% and 2.8% respectively over the figures for the first five months of 1992. Exports to the OPEC countries fared least well, being 5% down.

The Community's trade balance with the countries of Central and Eastern Europe showed a surplus of ECU 0.7 billion for the first five months of 1993 as against a deficit of ECU 0.3 billion for the corresponding period of 1992. Imports from these countries were 8.1% up, but there was a sharp rise in exports to the same countries (15.2%).

Trade with China was in deficit to the tune of ECU 3.5 billion in January-May 1993, an improvement of ECU 0.7 billion over the corresponding period of the previous year. Imports from China were almost 15% up and exports to China surged 73% between the first five months of 1992 and the same period of 1993.

EXTRA-COMMUNITY TRADE BY PRODUCT: Results for May 1993.
The five-month cumulative surplus on machinery and transport equipment (SITC 7) is ECU 6 billion higher than in the corresponding period of 1992.

Trade in machinery and transport equipment (SITC 7) was in surplus to the tune of ECU 15.1 billion during the first five months of 1993, as against ECU 9 billion for the corresponding months of 1992. The surplus in chemicals (SITC 5) rose by ECU 2.8 billion to ECU 10.6 billion. The negative balance in the "other manufactured goods" item was stable over the period in question at ECU 8.5 billion. The deficit in energy products (SITC 3), in terms of cumulative figures for the first five months of 1993, narrowed by ECU 2.8 billion. The cost of the Community's supplies of crude oil, calculated as a simple average for January-May 1993 and expressed in terms of dollars per barrel, fell 1.3% in relation to the average cost for January-May 1992. This average was 3.4% up in terms of ecu per barrel. Trade deficits in crude materials (SITC 2+4) and food products (SITC 0+1) narrowed by just under ECU 2 billion to ECU 8.8 billion and ECU 500 million respectively for the first five months of 1993 (cumulative).

Imports of energy products were 3% down in January-May 1993 compared with the same period of 1992. Imports of crude materials and food products fell more sharply, by 11% and 12%. Imports of machinery and transport equipment were 3.1% down and imports of chemicals 2.2% down.

Flows of other manufactured goods were 3% up. Exports of chemicals (cumulative figures January-May 1993) were 11.1% higher than in the same period of the previous year, and exports of machinery and transport equipment rose substantially, by 5.7%. Flows of other manufactured goods rose less sharply, by 3.9%. Exports of food products rose 3.2% over the period January-May 1992.

EXTRA-COMMUNITY TRADE OF INDIVIDUAL MEMBER STATES:
Results for May 1993. Germany's extra-Community surplus rises by ECU 4.8 billion between the first five months of 1992 and the same period of 1993.

For the first five months of 1993, Germany's extra-Community balance was ECU 6.2 billion, 4.8 billion higher than over the same period of 1992. Italy ran an ECU 1.4 billion surplus for the reference period, as against an ECU 3 billion deficit in the corresponding period of 1992. Ireland's extra-Community trade remained more or less in balance, but Portugal and the BLEU each turned in a deficit of almost ECU 1 billion. The BLEU's extra-Community balance showed an ECU 2.3 billion improvement over the equivalent period of the previous year. France and Greece each had an extra-Community trade deficit of ECU 1.6 billion, close to the 1992 levels for the same period. Spain reported an ECU 2.4 billion deficit in January-May 1993 - although this was an improvement of ECU 3.3 billion. The Netherlands' extra-Community trade was in the red to the tune of ECU 6 billion, as against nearly ECU 8 billion in the first five months of 1992. The United Kingdom had the biggest deficit for January-May 1993: ECU 9.5 billion, almost as large as for the first five months of 1992.

INTRACOMMUNITY TRADE OF INDIVIDUAL MEMBER STATES:
Results for February 1993 for Germany, results for May 1993 for Greece,
Spain, France and Italy

NB:

Following the change in the collection system for intra-Community data on 1 January 1993, caution is called for in making comparisons between 1992 and 1993. The link between the new INTRASTAT system and the taxation system has changed the reference dates for the recording of goods, and this may lead to a drop in flows at the beginning of 1993 which may in part be attributable to non-responses, since some time will be needed to check Infrastat's coverage.

GERMANY: Germany's intra-Community trade was more or less in balance in January-February 1993, whereas it had shown a cumulative surplus of 1.2 billion for the first two months of 1992. Intra-Community trade measured in terms of incoming goods fell 11% in relation to January-February 1992, while outgoing goods fell a little more sharply (16%).

GREECE: The cumulative intra-Community balance sheet for the first five months of 1993 was in deficit to the tune of almost ECU 3 billion, very similar to the figure for the corresponding period of 1992. Flows of incoming and outgoing goods did not move in the same direction:

incoming goods were 10% up and outgoing goods 5% down. This difference invalidates comparisons with the series collected prior to January 1993.

SPAIN: Spain's intra-Community trade was in deficit to the tune of ECU 2 billion for the period January-May 1993, as against an ECU 4.7 billion deficit for January-May 1992. Flows of incoming goods fell by 20% and flows of outgoing goods by 9%. The comments made above should be repeated here. The change in collection procedures has no doubt influenced flows of incoming and outgoing goods in different ways.

FRANCE: France's intra-Community trade deficit was almost ECU 1 billion in January-May 1993 as against ECU 1.5 billion for the first five months of 1992. France's intra-Community trade fell by almost 12% between January-May 1992 and the same period of 1993. Trends in incoming goods remain similar to those for outgoing goods (-13% and -12% respectively).

ITALY: Italy's cumulative intra-Community balance for January-May 1992 was in deficit to the tune of ECU 5 billion whereas the figure for the same period of the previous year was a surplus of over ECU 1 billion. Italy's intra-Community flows are moving in the same direction as Spain's. Incoming goods were 26% down and outgoing goods 10% down between the first five months of 1992 and the same period of 1993.
