

BOGGIANO PICO, Antonio

- Born Savona, Italy, 31.8.1873
- Barrister
Professor at Genoa University
Barrister of the Sacra Romana Rota
Five years as professor at the University of the Sacred Heart, Milan
- Since 1907 : professor at Genoa University
- 1905 : elected provincial councillor; held this appointment for 17 years
- 1919 : elected to Parliament
- Nov.9, 1926: deprived of his parliamentary mandate
- Italian delegate to the League of Nations in Geneva and Secretary for Italy in the International Association for the Legal Protection of Workers
- 1945 : appointed member of the Consulta Nazionale (Consultative Assembly)
Chairman of Committee dealing with Premiership and Ministry of the Interior
- 1953 : re-elected Senator for Liguria
Delegate to the Assembly of the Council of Europe
- Member of the Common Assembly
- Member of the Social Affairs Committee
- Member of the Committee on Political Affairs and the External Relations of the Community
- Member of the Christian-Democrat Group.