

HELMUTH BURCKHARDT

Born 1903 in Berlin. Following studies (mining) at Berlin Technical University and passing first state examination (1921 - 1925), he worked in state training colleges (1925 - 1928). Passed second state examination in 1928. After period of technical work on mine-management side of copper-ore mining in Mansfeld district (up to 1933), he held executive posts with the Eachweil Mining Association (Bergwerksverein) in the Aix-la-Chapelle coal mining industry, first as technical director of several mines, subsequently as director of mines. 1938: appointed to the board of the Eachweil Mining Association; since 1951 Director-General of that Association.

He is Vice-President (former President) of the Consultative Committee.

---