

Bio E

Lucien Emringer, born 25/12/1935. Graduated in Political Science at the University of Geneva in 1955.

After his military service has worked for Radio Luxembourg as a radio commentator and entered Community Civil Service in 1960 as Administrator in the Press and Information Service in Luxembourg. In 1967 he moved to Brussels where he entered the Division for Scientific and Technical Information.

In 1969 he took responsibility for scientific and technical publications in the Directorate Generale Dissemination of Scientific and Technical Information (formerly attached to Euratom).

In 1973 he moved to the OOP where he headed the Sales Department. Within OOP he successively took responsibility for the Publishing and the Print Procurement Departments and has been since 1982 head of Division for administrative and technical services.

Director of the OOP from 1st of August 1989.

20.7.1989