PERSONAL DETAILS

- I. Born March 28, 1915 in Berlin, Germany and raised in that country, I attended the Schiller-Realgymnasium and the University of Berlin in the German capital as well as the University of Freiburg i.B. in the state of Baden. I hold the M.A. degree in economics from the University of Berlin and the Ph.D. degree in the same discipline from the University of Freiburg. I also followed a complete German law course in Berlin.
- II. I came to this country in 1938. I am an American citizen. I followed postgraduate studies at Columbia University in New York in economics and international law, my two major interests to this day. At a much later time, in 1954-1955 I returned to Columbia to take special courses in the new mathematics (probability calculus, linear programming etc.)
- III. In World War II I served in the United States Army from 1943 to 1945, first in the infantry, then in the OSS.
- IV. My professional positions have been held on the campus and in the bureaucracy: Brooklyn College 1946-1952, Connecticut College 1955, Georgetown University 1963-1969, George Washington University 1970-1972, University of Maryland 1973 to date. Since 1963 I hold professorial rank. In 1946 I served in the State Department on civil list, and from 1955 - 1960 in the Foreign Service of the United States. In 1961, I joined the Organisation of American States where I stayed until 1963 as chief of the international finance and trade division. In all positions, academic and non-academic, my major field of interest was international economic and financial relations. Of late I am particularly occupied with problems of the multinational corporation and antitrust, national and international.
- V. I have published a large number of articles, essays, reviews and briefs in professional and more general journals and newspapers such as the NY Times on economic and international problems as well as regional issues concerning Europe, East West relations, Japan and Latin America. I served as a contributing economics editor of the Handbbok of Latin American Studies from 1956-1969.
- VI. My activities also include public lecturing, appearances before Congressional Committees and on the news media always in reference to my specializations.
- VII. I have travelled widely on both sides of the Atlantic and have a strong familiarity with foreign languages and customs.
- VIII. The EC is a special interest of mine, and I am preparing a manuscript on it.
