

Enzo GIACCHERO

Member of the High Authority of the European Coal and Steel Community

- 1912 Born, Turin
- Studies at "Politecnico", Turin.
- 1934 Degree in "Civil Engineering".
- 1934-40 Works at the "Politecnico" as assistant to Prof. Colonnetti, eminent scientist, in the field of the theory of statics.
- 1940 Leaves job to join the army. Fights in North Africa, wounded at El Alamein in 1942.
- 1943-45 From winter 1943 to the end of the war takes part in the partisan war, where he formed the "divisione Asti" in the Savoyard Alps (N.W. Italy), around Monferrato.
- 1945-46 After the war, becomes head of the civil administration (prefetto) for the Asti area during the A.M.G. (Allied Military Government) period. Joins the Christian Democratic party. Is elected to the Constituent Assembly in 1946, and subsequently to the Lower House of Parliament in 1948.
- 1947 As a President of the Federalist Group in the Italian Parliament is among the founders (with Kalergi, Coty and Bohy) of the European Parliamentary Union, which brings together federalist parliamentarians from the countries of Western Europe.
- 1949 A member of the Italian delegation to the Council of Europe in Strasbourg from the very beginning. Elected Chairman of the Committee for Scientific and Cultural Affairs of that Assembly. Since 1949 has been a member of the Central Committee of the European Federalist Movement.
- 1952 Aug 10 Appointed Member of the High Authority of the European Coal and Steel Community in Luxembourg.