

B
Book

Domingo Jimenez-Beltran
Executive Director, European Environment Agency (EEA)

Recent posts:

- | | |
|------------------------|--|
| June 1994 to date | Executive Director of the European Environment Agency (Copenhagen) |
| 1991-1994
(3 years) | Director-General for Environmental Policy: Secretary of State for Environment and Housing, Ministry of Public Works, Transport and Environment (Spain) |
| 1987-1991
(4 years) | Head of Division: "Health, Physical Safety and Quality"; "Consumers Policy Service", CPS, European Commission (Brussels) |
| 1986-1987
(1 year) | Attaché for Environment and Public Works, Permanent Representation of Spain to the European Union (Brussels) |
| 1985-1986
(1 year) | Deputy Director-General for International and European Union Relations and with the Ministry of Public Works and Urban Planning (Madrid) |
| 1983-1985
(2 years) | Executive Adviser to the Minister for Public Works and Urban Planning (Madrid) |

Professional experience:

27 years professional experience, mostly in the field of environmental protection and natural resources management, both in private enterprises (production, manufacturing, engineering and consulting) and public administration at regional, national and community level (managerial positions, organisation and direction of important departments, programming, budgetary control, development of policies and legal instruments with horizontal and sectorial character, international negotiations and relations, as well as development of information systems). Author and editor of several publications and articles, professor of specialised courses and active lecturer on these matters.

Languages:

Spanish mother-tongue, French and English spoken and written, Norwegian spoken, Danish translation.

University Studies:

Industrial Engineer: High Technical School of Industrial Engineers Polytechnic University, Madrid, 1967

Born at Zaragoza (Spain), 2 April 1944. Married, one child. Present residence: Copenhagen

July 1995