

lib.

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA: MICHAEL J. KILLEEN,
MANAGING DIRECTOR AND CHAIRMAN,
BOARD OF THE INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.

Michael J. Killeen is Managing Director and Chairman of the Board of the Industrial Development Authority. He joined the IDA from the Irish Export Board (Coras Trachtala) where he had been General Manager from 1966 to 1969.

Mr. Killeen is a member of the Boards of the Irish Export Board and the Shannon Free Airport Development Company Limited; Vice-President of the Institute of Public Administration and the Irish Council of the European Movement; Member of the Council of the Irish Management Institute and the Economic and Social Research Institute; Member of the Trilateral Commission; was first Chairman of AnCO - the Industrial Training Authority 1967 - 1971.

Mr. Killeen was born in Donegal in 1928 and was educated at Saint Joseph's College, Galway, University College, Falway, and Trinity College, Dublin, from which he graduated with a moderatorship in Economics and Political Science and a Bachelor of Commerce Degree.