

Curriculum Vitae

Claude RAKOVSKY

Head of Unit "General Policy and International Aspects"

Directorate General IV (Competition), Commission of the European Communities

A former exchange dealer at the Banque of France (Paris), M. Rakovsky joined the Commission of the European Communities in 1978 as an official in Directorate General II (Economic and Financial Affairs) dealing with the implementation of the European Monetary System. Since 1981 he has worked in Directorate General IV, from 1981 - 1988 dealing with the restructuring of the Community's steel industry and the application of Articles 92 - 93 to the chemical industry sector and from 1988 - 1991 dealing with the implementation of the new regulation concerning the application of Articles 85 - 86 EEC to maritime transport.

From January 1992 to May 1994 Mr. Rakovsky was Head of Unit in the Directorate General IV (Competition) of the Commission of the European Communities, responsible for Public enterprises and State monopolies.

Institut d'Etudes Politiques (Paris) : public economy

Institut d'Administration des Entreprises (Paris)

Université de Paris 3ième cycle d'Economie monétaire

Institut de Formation de la Banque de France (cycle de spécialisation en économie monétaire).

