

bioR

CURRICULUM VITAE

Horst REICHENBACH

Date and place of birth: 5 March 1945, Kiel/Germany
Family Status: Married, three children

Education

1965-1971 Studies in Mathematics and Economics in Hamburg and Kiel, Degree: "Diplom-Mathematiker"; won scholarship of DAAD to study Economics in London and Ontario (Canada), Degree: M.A. in Economics
1975 PhD (Topic: "Land in a growing economy")

Professional Career

1968-1971 Research Assistant in Kiel and London
1971-1975 Research Fellow at the "Institute for Agricultural Policy and Market Studies" at the University of Kiel since 1975 Official at the European Commission in the General Directorates for Economy and Finance, Regional Policy and Budget (Director for Expenditure) as well as in the Cabinets of C. Tugendhat, C. Ripà di Meana, K.-H. Narjes and M. Wulf-Mathies (Head of Cabinet).

Main working areas: Structural policy and economic and social cohesion; Economic and Monetary Union (EMU); economic aspects of integration; public finances and EC budget.

Publications on growth theory; public finances; structural policy and EMU; lecturer at the "Europa Institute" of the University of Saarbrücken.

