

European Economic Community

The Commission

Monsieur Giuseppe RENZETTI, Director-General of Transports,
E.E.C. Commission.

- 20 March 1906 Born in Pescara.
 - 1927 Degree in Economics and Commercial Science at the University of Rome.
 - 1930-1932 Engaged in international trade for a number of British firms in London and in East Africa; also continued studies of economics.
 - Since 1933 official in the Commercial and Transports Services of the Italian State Railways. In this capacity was particularly concerned with questions of international transport, and held among other posts that of Representative of the Italian Railways in Switzerland, of Director of Commercial Services in Milan, and finally of Director of Commercial Services at the Directorate-General in Rome.
 - 1958 Joined the staff of the E.E.C. Commission.
-

Received June 1959

